NORTH CAROLINA.

Mr. J. W. Cheek, of Durham, who has been quite ill, is now improving.

Wilkes Superior Court commences on Monday next.

Durham is in want of a street sprinkler. Bro. Green, your streets must be quite dusty.

The Local of the Greensboro Patriot, which has been largely represented at the Centennial on the 25th, says the Newbern Nut Shell: "A country woman died in Pelham, North Carolina, the other day at the age of 108 years."

Says the Hickory Press: "The wheat crop in this part of the State is not damaged to the extent supposed, but the heavy frost occurred."

A number of ladies and gentlemen of Greensboro propose giving a Tabernacle and Concert in aid of the Mecklenburg Centennial. It will take place on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst.

Just to the inclemency of the weather on Monday last, the Newbern Nut Shell says that the 22nd inst., at which time floral tributes will be offered in honor to our noble dead.

The good people of Laurinburg, Richmond county, have decided to give a service for, and on, the 23rd inst., to allow any kind of intoxicating liquors to be sold in that town. The colored people nearly all voted for prohibition.

Says the Charlotte Observer of the 12th inst: "A pistol accident, which occurred in the hands of Mr. W. N. M. in his store yesterday, and a negro in front of him narrowly escaped being shot through the body. The ball grazed the arm, and embedded itself in the wall."

Says the Monroe Enquirer: "We were told that Mr. David Orrs, of this county, came very near being buried alive a few days ago. In the following singular manner: Orrs had made a compost heap about ten feet high, early in the spring, and in hauling it out, on his field, he had dug under the heap to get at the bottom, and while he was there, he had his children went into the excavation to play, and suddenly the pile came in completely burying two of them, while a third was left outside. The alarm was given, and the pile was gotten out in time to prevent any serious consequences, save one broken leg."

Too CRITICAL.—The St. Louis Globe casually remarks: "We owe an apology to our friend, Colonel Norman J. Colman. We started out the other day to give him a good thrashing, but on reading his article, we found that he was about to deliver an address at the Texas State Fair. We wrote: 'There is a great deal in store for the people of Texas.' It appeared in the Globe, and the result follows: 'There is a great deal in store for the people of Texas.' The printer who 'set' the paragraph insists that he came nearer to the mark than we did, and we have ordered him to be discharged as a man whose mind is entirely too analytical, and whose tendency is entirely too critical."

LATEST STYLE OF PAPER.—A gentleman from the country called this morning at the counter of Mr. Young, the bookseller of this city, and asked for a ream of "Beecher note paper." The gentlemanly clerk somewhat puzzled handed down an elegant assortment. The customer looked suspiciously at the smooth and glossy paper, and declared that none would answer. "I want," said he, "the Beecher note paper, ragged-edged paper, so that whatever I write on it, it will mean something else." The clerk reported to Mr. Young, and the customer took that opportunity to slip out at the door.—Troy Press.

AN AGGRAVATED LYNCHING AFFAIR.—The particulars of a lynching affair of a peculiarly aggravated character, which transpired near Nevada, Iowa, on Sunday last, have been published, the victim being an old farmer named Kirkman. Some months ago he was accused by a vigilance committee of having burned his neighbor's barn, and threatened with hanging. He was arrested by the leaders, and during the pendency of his trial he was notified, under pain of death, to leave the country for six months. He failed to comply with the demand, and Sunday morning was dragged from his bed and murdered in cold blood, simply as a means of getting out of the way a troublesome witness.

At a meeting of York pioneers at Toronto, on Tuesday night, the Secretary read a resolution adopted by the York and Ontario Pioneers Association, in consequence of the present attempt on the part of citizens of the United States to inaugurate a centennial celebration of the Revolution of 1776, and the duty of Canadians to take the initiative in preparing for the hundredth anniversary of the exodus of their ancestors, which first drew the dividing line between the American and the British provinces. Action was deferred until the next meeting.

Rev. John King, of Ashby de la Launde, in Lincolnshire England is dead. Under the assumed name of Mr. Latunde, Mr. King was widely known as owner of racing stables, notably of "Apology," the winner of the Oaks, one thousand guineas and St. Leger stakes of 1874 and of Holy Friar, one of favorites for the Derby of 1875. "Apology," "Friar," thus become a qualification for running for the Derby and all bets on him are rendered void.

There is at present at the Paris Mint enough of silver for the coinage of 20,000,000 francs in pieces of twenty francs. There is also a great abundance of silver, and it can almost be said that the metal taken out of the country by the war indemnity has been completely re-entered France.

An English-American mutual Aid Association has been formed at Rome for the purpose of protecting foreigners against extortions of Italian hotel keepers, especially in cases of sickness or death.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has announced that the second Pan-Anglican Synod will be assembled in 1877, when steps will be taken to the attendance of the bishops.

A POLAR WAVE ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO.—Randall's Life of Jefferson contains the entries in Mr. Jefferson's garden-book in 1774, from which it appears that the people of that time were subject to "polar waves" in the Spring time. We copy the following entries:

May 4.—The Blue Ridge of mountains covered with snow.

May 5.—A frost which destroyed almost everything. It killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 6.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 7.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 8.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 9.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 10.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 11.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 12.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 13.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 14.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 15.—A frost which killed the wheat, rye, corn, many tobacco plants, and even large saplings. The leaves of the trees were entirely killed, and all the shoots of vines.

May 16.—First dish of peas from earliest patch.

The Grangers of Burlington county, New Jersey, are going into active business on their own account, not only in agricultural but also in other departments in trade. At Bedford they have purchased a large building and are erecting a store, blacksmith shop, wheelwright shop, bank, transportation office, etc., etc.

A committee has been formed, with Mr. Disraeli as its president, for the purpose of erecting a memorial over the grave of Lord Byron in the church of Hucklell York church, near Newcastle Abbey.

Gen. Neal Dow, the famous temperance lecturer, who has been in England for the past two years, has been very ill recently, and is soon to return to this country.

The population of England by the general census of 1871, was 28,415,000 souls, total, including colonial possessions, 28,472,593.

The King of Saxony refuses to allow Protestant soldiers to mount guard before Catholic churches and dignitaries.

Robert Bonner, the proprietor of the New York Ledger, has given $100,000 to Rev. Dr. Hall's new church, on Fifth avenue, in that city.

HOUSTON, May 13.—Jefferson Davis delivered an address at the annual Texas fair.
ALBANY, May 13.—The new iron bridge over the Erie Canal gave way yesterday, carrying with it a team of horses, a wagon and two men.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS CONVENTION.

LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
COL. J. D. CAMERON, OF THE RALEIGH NEWS, ELECTED PRESIDENT.

EXCURSION TO THE SEASIDE.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY NEWS.]

WILMINGTON, May 13.—The press excursion down the river to Old Ocean yesterday was one of the most pleasant affairs it was ever our good lot to enjoy. Gov. Vance, in one of his best humors was along, and this is all that is necessary to show that the party had a good time.
The proceedings of the Convention have been important to the press of the State, and will undoubtedly redound to its gain and advantage.
The Convention adjourned to-day after electing the following officers: President—Col. Jno. D. Cameron, of the Raleigh News.
Vice-Presidents—Bernard, Wilmington Star, Mannix, Newbern Times, and Malone, Asheville Express. R. T. Fulghum was elected Secretary and Treasurer, and Capt. R. A. Shotwell Corresponding Secretary.
Messrs. Engelhard, Stone, Manning, S. D. Pool, Jr., and C. R. Jones were elected as the Executive Committee.
There will be a grand ball to night, given by the citizens complimentary to the press and a huge time is naturally contemplated.

Raid on the Whiskey Ring.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The Secretary of the Treasury is still vigorously engaged in the work of prosecuting the raid against all the parties engaged directly or indirectly in the illicit whiskey distillations. Orders for seizures are daily issued. Among them was one to-day calling for the seizure of an establishment in Cincinnati. Secretary Bristow has directed that the investigation into the condition of the distilleries and rectifying houses of Milwaukee be complete and thorough, and the Treasury agents are requested in all cases where U. S. Attorneys and Revenue officials fail to give their support to the investigations in progress to report their names to the department.
The agent at Milwaukee telegraphs to the collector to-day that he has discovered a substantial rank with a capacity of twenty-five thousand gallons belonging to one of the Milwaukee distillers. Up to this time no changes of Revenue officials, other than buyers and storekeepers have been made, several officers of these grades were removed yesterday and to-day.

The New Hampshire Senatorial Contested Election Case—The Superior Judges to Decide.

CONCORD, N. H., May 13.—The Governor and Council, who were engaged until a late hour last night in hearing the contested senatorial election cases, at whose decision hinges the political supremacy of either party in this State, met this morning, when it was moved that the questions involved in the senatorial questions be referred to the Judges of the Superior Court for their opinions, provided such can be obtained before next Monday at 3 o'clock, otherwise that the Governor be instructed to get such advice as the circumstances may admit. The motion to adjourn until 3 o'clock Monday next, was agreed to.

FOREIGN NEWS.

An Unsuccessful Attempt to Reach the Schiller—Runners of War.
LONDON, May 13.—The Underwriter's agents and divers to-day attempted to reach the wreck of the Schiller, but were prevented from doing so by a heavy ground swell.
The London Post maintains that the late war rumors were not groundless. Germany is alarmed by the rapidity of the French Military reorganization, and had arranged everything for, and was on the point of marching against France, but the danger is averted for the moment.

The Miners War.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 13.—A struggling fire was kept up from ten o'clock last evening until four this morning upon the Sheriff's posse at Hutchinson's break by the striking miners. They hope in this manner to frighten the posse away. Four more men went to work for Hutchinson.

Peace Reigns in Warsaw.

WARSAW, May 13.—An official telegram has been received at the Russian Legation here from Berlin, stating that the Emperor leaves Berlin entirely convinced of the conciliatory disposition which exist there, and which assures the maintenance of peace.

Forty Days from London to Japan.

It has been announced that a California Corporation, called the Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company, was some time ago organized to run steamers between San Francisco and China and Japan, competing for that trade with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Late English papers give accounts of the sailing of the White Star steamer "Oceanic" from Liverpool, via the Suez canal, for Hong Kong, whence she will leave early in June, with a full cargo of the new tea, and be ready to start back from San Francisco by July 5. She is to be followed in a few days by the "Gaelic," formerly belonging to the same line, and at an interval of twenty days or so by the "Belgic," all of them vessels of large carrying capacity, and with very great speed in proportion to the consumption of fuel. The two latter are quite new, and the former has been thoroughly overhauled and refitted for the new service. It is expected they will be able to make the passage from Yokohama to San Francisco in about twenty days, and passengers will be able to make the trip from London to Japan, or vice versa, inside of forty days, besides avoiding the dangers of the Red Sea passage. The "Oceanic" and her consorts will be able to carry 4,500 to 5,000 tons of freight, besides passengers, or sufficient to employ a daily train of fifty cars for ten or twelve days to move overland. The whole of the through freight, and of course the passengers of the steamships will be sent over the Pacific railroads. The facility and speed of such communications between China and Japan and the United States are difficult to realize, and must have an important bearing upon the trade and commerce of this country and the world.

MORE CUNNING THAN JOHN.

The Chinese in San Francisco are reported by a journal of that city as endeavoring to evade their contributions to the public revenue by "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain." It is said that in the collection of poll-taxes there has always been a good deal of difficulty in preventing the transfer of receipts from one Chinaman to another, whereby a single receipt is made to do duty several times over. For the purpose of detecting and frustrating this imposition one of the assessors has devised a system of marking receipts when they are issued to Chinamen in such a way as to indicate the prominent external characteristics of the man's physique. For instance, one designation points to a Mongol, under thirty years of age, short in stature, no scars on head or neck; another signifies a man "over thirty years of age, tall, with small-pox marks;" a third an "old man, very fat, scars on head or neck;" a fourth a "cross-eyed Chinaman;" a fifth a "Chinaman very lean, with small-pox marks, and so on. Thus, if the collector on the verge of three-score and ten, about as fat as a match, and with a countenance dotted with small-pox marks, when asked if he has paid his poll-tax, presents a receipt whose designation shows that it was issued to a young man, very fat with no small-pox marks, the deputy quietly remarks, "I guess not," and goes for that heathen Chinese. The plan is found to work excellently and many a Mongol has already been brought to grief by its means.

The English steamer Bessemer,

which was built to annihilate sea-sickness by a means of a swinging saloon, has had another trial recently with a large party of distinguished spectators on board. The vessel ran from Dover to Calais in hour one and thirty minutes, not an alarming rate of speed, but did not exhibit the good qualities of the saloon, which is said to be "unfurnished." Two months since it was sufficiently finished to be pronounced a success, when it was properly arranged, but even then, it was stated it should be the motion of the ship; a view also shared by TRIESTE. It seems singular that on a trial trip of this magnitude the saloon should not have been in order, so as to set at rest all doubt as to its ultimate value and efficiency.

The Needle gun, with which it was the fashion to say Sadowa and Sedan was already being supplanted in the Prussian service by the Mauser rifle. This weapon is being manufactured for the government by private parties, and the contractors have nearly all been filled ahead of time, so that the troops will be entirely supplied with it before the fall maneuvers. The field artillery is also being changed throughout for guns of improved pattern.

General David Vickers, of New

Jersey, has been appointed United States Commissioner to attend the industrial exhibition in Chili to be held this year. General Vickers was a soldier during the late war. He spent several years in Valparaiso as secretary of the American legation there, and is closely connected by marriage with the President of that Republic.

The Chinese tailors of San Francisco

have struck, and posted bills through the city, offering a quarter, offering $400 for the killing of any boss tailor who manifests a disinclination to pay the rate of remuneration demanded, and an additional $300 for the killing of any tailor who consents to work for less than the rate so fixed.
